

Please join Appleton Reiss, PLLC for a:

Board Certification Seminar

The purpose of this free seminar is to inform community association board members about the effective and legal operation of condominium associations and homeowners' associations in Florida. Topics covered will include association duties pursuant to Florida Statutes, duties of board members, the roles of the community association manager and management company, enforcement of the governing documents, collection of assessments, how to conduct meetings and elections, and financial reporting requirements of associations. This seminar meets all statutory requirements for board member training. Upon completion of the course, Appleton Reiss, PLLC, will present attendees with a certificate of completion.
